February 2019 Edition

Greetings!

We know, this is a long newsletter. But there's a lot of good stuff going on that we don't want you to miss out on. So dive in and read it all, or scroll to just what's exciting to you!

In this edition:

Slide Slam 4

Slide Slam 3

Ratgrrl's Vendor Circus Call for Vendors

PACast: Long Island Music Spotlight

Adult Workshop: POP! with Linda Carlsen

Wining About Art: Post Impressionism

PAC's Amazing Art and Oil Club with the Amazing Olive

Patchogue Arts Gallery and Satellite Gallery Exhibits

Plus the Patchogue Theatre for the Performing Arts schedule for the next two weeks, and other opportunities, events, and exhibits going on.

Join us this Thursday, February 7 for Slide Slam 4. And don't worry, you didn't miss Slide Slam 3, it's been rescheduled for March 30th (see below for details). We're doing things sorta-kind backwards with Slide Slam 4 before Slide Slam 3!

Slide Slam 4: Heckscher Museum of Art

2 Prime Ave, Huntington, NY

To the Light: Akayo Bando

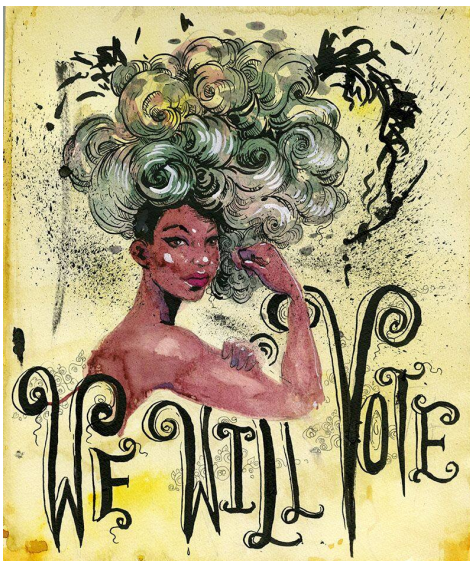

[Satellite Gallery at Shand's Loft @
Brickhouse Brewery and Restaurant](#)

Curated by John Cino

Through February 24, 2019

Reception: February 9, 6:00 - 7:30 PM

Ayako Bando was born in Tokushima, Japan where she recalls being "surrounded by the beauty of nature with its mountains, rivers, trees, and flowers." Since 2014 she has worked on the Towanohikari series which translates as Eternal Light, a light that illuminates our hearts and brings purity. Inspired by her youth and the works of Wassily Kandinsky, she sees the light emanating from the spirit intertwining "people and nature with the same common forces of life, where we are all connected ... born pure and innocent into this world."

Distilled Life: Portraits & Illustrations by Tim O'Brien

Curated By Beth Giacummo, Essay by Alexandra Giordano, Catalog Design by Donna Proper

Memorial Gallery Hale Hall

February 4 - April 12, 2019

Lecture: February 12, from 11:00 AM - Noon

Gleeson Rm 104

Reception: February 12, from 5:00 - 7:00 PM

Free & open to the public

Curated by Beth Giacummo, Distilled Life: Portraits & Illustrations by Tim O'Brien will be on view at Farmingdale State College Memorial Gallery from February 4 through April 12, 2019. A special lecture with the artist will be held on February 12 from 11:00 AM - Noon in room 104 of the Gleeson Building, followed by a reception later in the day from 5:00 - 7:00 PM.

This exhibition will feature over 30 original works by Tim O'Brien, and an exhibition essay and catalog by Farmingdale Visual Communications faculty, Alexandra Giordano and Donna Proper. The collection of artwork can be separated into categories: portraiture, environmental/landscape and conceptual. Many of the illustrations included are magazine covers from periodicals such as Entertainment Weekly, Nautilus Magazine, Time Magazine, Der Spiegel, Rolling Stone, Smithsonian, Esquire, GQ, National Geographic, or book covers from the popular series The Hunger Games. Regardless of the genre, O'Brien consistently uses his tactile and intimate technique to suck the viewer into the spaces he creates. His ability to paint scenes with perfection is at times enchanting and at other times provocative. Oil paint disappears and O'Brien leaves the viewer with an image that is so life-like, it is instantly believable.

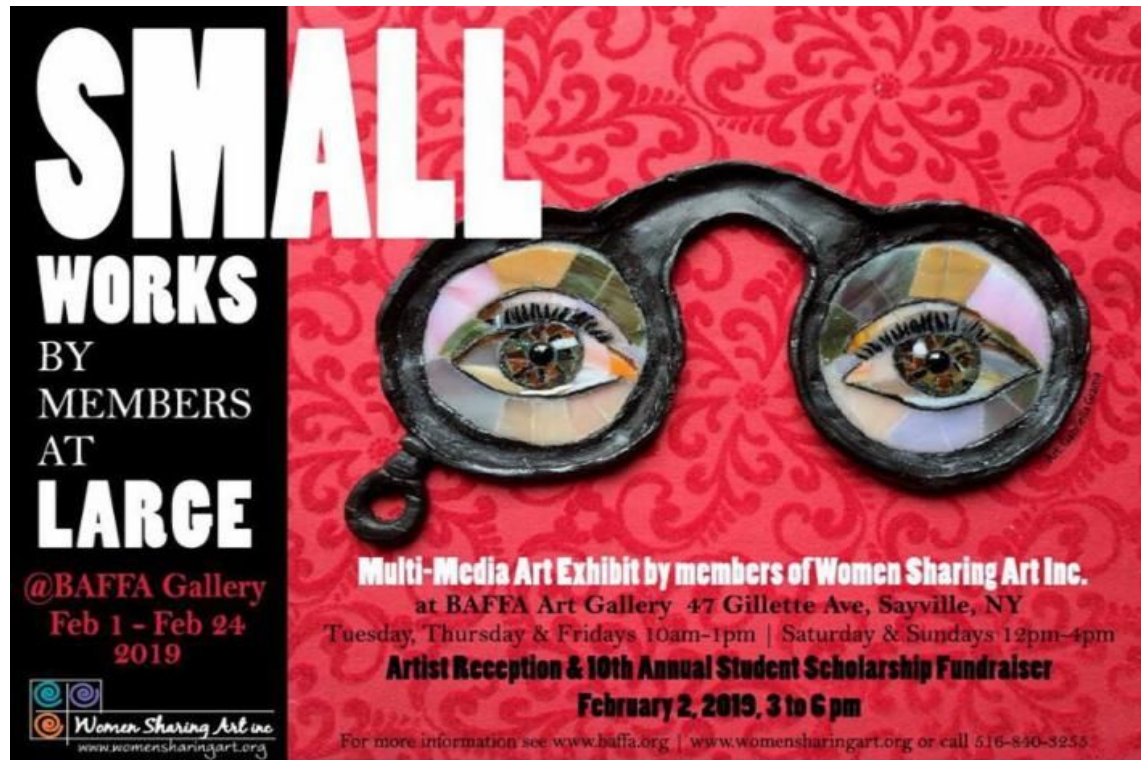

Peconic Crossing - Artist Preferred Housing in Riverhead

Peconic Crossing is an environment under construction for artists to create, collaborate, and live on West Main St in the heart of downtown Riverhead, home to East End Arts. They are currently accepting applications for inclusion in the future selection lottery. Peconic Crossing will provide spacious, energy-efficient, one- and two-bedroom homes and offer available gallery space for residents. Preference will be given to artists and those displaced victims of a covered storm including, but not limited to, Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Irene, and Tropical Storm Lee. Call 631-830-6402 or email peconiccrossing@coniferllc.com for more information and how to apply or visit www.apartmentsforartists.com.
