Mid-March 2019 Edition

Greetings!

For many of us, the arts fill a valuable role of release from daily stress. This year's Artful Antics Festival Season 2019 (AAFS) will create an atmosphere that celebrates whimsy, humor, joy, and play from April - October. It's because you continue to support the arts that the Patchogue Arts Council's (PAC) programming over the past ten years has grown to include an entire season. Thank you!

We are asking you to support this year's AAFS and our signature event Arts on Terry with a sponsorship. Your sponsorship will enable us to provide joyous and culturally enriching events featuring visual arts, dance, music, film, and video in multiple venues throughout downtown Patchogue.

View the full sponsorship package and make a donation here.

Get artful with us! Before the antics of the festival season begin, experience the joy and emotion Vincent Van Gogh felt while creating his paintings. From April 11th-13th the Patchogue Theatre for the Performing Arts (PTPA) and PAC will present its first co-production, Vincent, based on an original play by Leonard Nimoy. PAC needs to raise $5,000 towards this co-production.

On April 27th AAFS begins with whimsical poetry and performance in the PTPA lobby followed by a Promenade inspired by the Ballets Russe's 1917 Parade for which the term Surrealism was coined. Parade notables included choreographer Sergei Diaghilev, composer Erik Satie, and Pablo Picasso, who designed the costumes and set. Be inspired to create your own costume and join us for the day's events influenced by ideas of Dadaism, Cubism, Surrealism, and the Bauhaus.

Ten artists selected from an open call will lead the Promenade along with Think Big (a local puppet theater), musicians and you -- everyone is invited to join in the antics! You'll walk across the newly unveiled Roe Walkway for the Arts to the PAC Gallery for Jenny Thwing's pop-up installation, Pest in the Garden. She will also have led free workshops at the library for you to create a paper costume for use during the Promenade.

Once at PAC, get ready for a big secret reveal! The antics continue later that evening for a special after-party at Toast Coffeehouse.

AAFS will feature gallery exhibits, public art, and sculptural installations in the garden, film screenings, nights of live music and performance, and a new mural sponsored by PAC and the Patchogue-Medford Library on the library's rear wall. The Arts on Terry (AOT) street art fair on June 23rd from noon to 6:00 PM is a full day of art exhibits, organizations, galleries, and artists from across L.I., demonstrations, family-friendly activities, live music and performances.

Many of the AAFS events are free and open to the public. PAC strives to adhere to its mission by making opportunities accessible for all to experience art. We hope that we can count on your generosity again with an AAFS sponsorship to help make this season's free events possible. Please take a moment and look at all that PAC has planned this season. Your contribution will make the events possible.

50% of the annual festival season's budget typically comes from the county's Downtown Destination grant which was created to offer seed money to under-served communities, but since Patchogue, with the help of the grant, has now become the DESTINATION in Suffolk County, this year's grant was awarded to another community. This means your contribution is more important than ever to make AAFS a success.

We will recognize our sponsors for their dedication to the arts as detailed in the enclosed Sponsorship Opportunities form. We also welcome the donation of In-Kind services from local businesses.

Please view our full sponsorship package for AAFS here, or make your donation on our website.

Artfully,
Beth Giacummo
Executive Director, The Patchogue Arts Council

P.S. If PAC can secure enough AAFS sponsorships, we will be able to purchase a sign for our location at 20 Terry St. PAC has been a stable force in the cultural revitalization and sustainability of Patchogue, and it's time we improve our visual presence as the center of the newly created Arts and Culture district.

This year's Artful Antics Festival Season 2019 (AAFS) will create an atmosphere that celebrates whimsy, humor, joy, and play from April - October.

A few highlights of the AAFS 2019 antics in the works for April:

April 11th-13th: Patchogue Theatre for the Performing Arts (PTPA) and PAC's first co-production, Leonard Nimoy's play Vincent's Letters to Theo

April 12th: Absinthe Tasting - A Pre-Performance of Vincent Experience
(see more below!)

April 27th: AAFS official kick off!

- Whimsical poetry and performance in the PTPA lobby
- Promenade inspired by the Ballets Russe's 1917 Parade, the event that the term Surrealism was coined for, and the event which also inspired Dada, Cubism, Surrealism, and the Bauhaus
- PAC reveals its super big top secret!

Of course, save the date for Arts on Terry (AOT), the annual street art fair, on June 23rd from noon to 6:00 PM. It's a full day of art exhibits, organizations, galleries, and artists from across Long Island, demonstrations, family-friendly activities, live music and performances.

Keep your eye on your inbox for schedule updates and calls for sponsorship.

Vincent

April 12 and 13, 8:00 PM

The first ever co-production by the Patchogue Arts Council and Patchogue Theatre for the Performing Arts.

This one-person play, written by Emmy nominated actor Leonard Nimoy, explores the little known side to Vincent van Gogh. Vincent will provide a multimedia experience by beautifully displaying Van Gogh's works on stage through projection as Theo, Vincent's brother, talks about them, allowing you to view these paintings and drawings while listening to their fascinating backstories. This production is bound to pique your curiosity about one of the world's most renowned artists and offer a brand new perspective on his works.

This production will be open to school groups to attend at a discounted rate on Thursday, April 11 and Friday, April 12 at 10:00 AM. Talkbacks and curriculum guides will be available to participating schools as well.

To purchase performance tickets only visit <http://www.patchoquetheatre.org/event/vincent/7542>

Receive a 10% discount on tickets to Vincent with college ID.

The Patchogue-Medford Library has planned free programming in conjunction with the production of *Vincent on April 12 and 13 at 8:00 PM. To learn more and to sign up with this programming visit the library at 54-50 E. Main St., call 631-654-4700, or visit their website at www.pmlib.org.

Adult Workshops and Classes

Learning to Look with John Cino

Class / Lecture

March 21 and 28, 6:30-8:00 PM

$20 for Members, $25 for Non-Members

Have you ever wondered why Leonardo's Last Supper looks the way it does, or why artists put certain things in still-lives, or what Picasso was thinking, or why art from other traditions looks so different? This two-part lecture will offer tools for the viewer to better understand the message delivered through works of art. Exploring works from Renaissance, Modern, Asian art, and African art, the concepts for symbolism, form, function, and abstraction will be discussed.

Visit <https://patchoguearts.org/pac-education-program/> for more information on PAC's Education initiatives and future courses.
