

CLASS / ART THERAPY

Thursdays

April 4, 11, 18, 25

Session A: 4:30PM - 6:30PM

Session B: 7:00PM - 9:00PM

Exploring the Subconscious with Linda Carlsen

The American Art Therapy Association defines art therapy as: "an integrative mental health and human services profession that enriches the lives of individuals, families, and communities through active art-making, creative process, applied psychological theory, and human experience within a psychotherapeutic relationship."^[4]

This four-week art therapy workshop will enable students to explore their subconscious through fun and stimulating media in order to facilitate a better understanding of self and higher functioning. Art therapist, Linda Carlsen, MA, ATR-BC, LCAT will guide each participant in understanding their past, present and future through the art therapy process. Artistic ability is not a necessary component.

CLASS / LECTURE

Thursday

April 4 (this class was rescheduled from the original date on March 28)

You can still sign up but please know it is part II.

Session A: 6:30PM - 8:00PM

Learning to Look Part II with John Cino

Have you ever wondered why Leonardo's 'Last Supper' looks the way it does, or why artists put certain things in still-lives, or what Picasso was thinking, or why art from other traditions looks so different? This two-part lecture will offer tools for the viewer to better understand the message delivered through works of art. Exploring works from Renaissance, Modern, Asian art, and Africana art, the concepts of symbolism, form, function, and abstraction will be discussed.
