CLASS / ART THERAPY

Thursdays

April 4, 11, 18, 25

Session A: 4:30PM - 6:30PM

Session B: 7:00PM - 9:00PM

Exploring the Subconscious with Linda Carlsen

The American Art Therapy Association defines art therapy as: "an integrative mental health and human services profession that enriches the lives of individuals, families, and communities through active art-making, creative process, applied psychological theory, and human experience within a psychotherapeutic relationship."^[4]

This four-week art therapy workshop will enable students to explore their subconscious through fun and stimulating media in order to facilitate a better understanding of self and higher functioning. Art therapist, Linda Carlsen, MA, ATR-BC, LCAT will guide each participant in understanding their past, present and future through the art therapy process. Artistic ability is not a necessary component.

Members: $100 plus $10 material fee

Non-members: $125 plus $10 material fee

CLASS / LECTURE

Thursdays

March 21 & 28

Session A: 6:30PM - 8:00PM

Learning to Look with John Cino

Have you ever wondered why Leonardo's 'Last Supper' looks the way it does, or why artists put certain things in still-lives, or what Picasso was thinking, or why art from other traditions looks so different? This two-part lecture will offer tools for the viewer to better understand the message delivered through works of art. Exploring works from Renaissance, Modern, Asian art, and Africana art, the concepts of symbolism, form, function, and abstraction will be discussed.

Member: $20

Non-member: $25

WORKSHOP / FINE ART

Saturday, April 27

10:00AM - 1:00PM

Pastel Workshop with Courtney Young

This workshop will focus on the foundations of successful pastel application and representational art; including composition, values, color, and drawing. The workshop will concentrate on creating several small color studies that will inform and enhance future paintings. These studies allow one to find a painting palette, as well as develop a unique mark-making vocabulary. Students will be encouraged to experiment and have fun using this forgiving medium.

Member: $50 plus $7 material fee

Non-member: $55 plus $7 material fee

CLASS / FINE ART

Thursdays

May 2, 9, 16, 23

Session A: 4:30PM - 6:30PM Session B:

7:00PM - 9:00PM

Pastels with Courtney Young

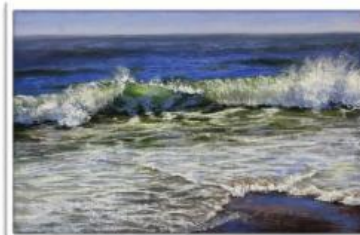

This course will guide students through the basics of using soft pastel to create vibrant works of art.

Students will create both still life compositions as well as landscapes. Instructor will give demonstrations on various methods of working with pastels, and students will work at their own pace from real life or photographs.

All levels welcome.

WINING ABOUT ART

Post Impressionism Lecture
French Wines & Sweets by Mademoiselle of Patchogue

$35 pp Wine & Lecture
March 16 from 6:00PM - 8:00PM
PAC Gallery | 20 Terry Street, Suite 116, Patchogue

SPECIAL LECTURE SERIES

Beginning in March 2019 PAC will present a new series of art talks in a very special way. Each art historical topic will be paired with wines from the associated region.

First up, John Cino will be speaking about Post-Impressionism. Get ready for some French wines as the art transforms from Realism to Abstraction and beyond in a thirty year period. Other fascinating topics will be explored in 2019 by guest speakers.

WINING ABOUT ART: Post Impressionism
Saturday, March 16, 2019 6:00PM – 8:00PM • $35

What better way to kick-off Wining About Art than with French wines, treats from Mademoiselle of Patchogue and the beginning of modern art.

Post-Impressionism is often marked as the beginning of modernism as artists abandoned the need for representational accuracy each with a unique form of abstraction based on inner compulsion. After touching upon the place of Impressionism in art history, the major Post-Impressionists: Van Gogh, Seurat, Cezanne, and Gauguin will be discussed. The talk will conclude with a brief survey of those whose works followed included Picasso, Matisse, and Kandinsky.

This event takes place at the

MEET THE INSTRUCTORS

Linda Carlsen is a local art therapist who earned her MA from Long Island University C.W. Post campus in Clinical Art Therapy. She is an ATR-BC (art therapist board certified with the American Art Therapy Association) as well as an LCAT (Licensed Creative Art Therapist with the New York State Board of the Professions). She is also a visual artist who enjoys working in a variety of media. Linda has extensive experience in working with people with special needs, geriatrics, people with mental health challenges, as well as the general population looking for a deeper understanding of themselves through art therapy and the power of the creative process. Compassion, kindness, and understanding are at the forefront of her approach in connecting with the people with whom she has the honor of serving.

John Cino is an artist, curator and educator who received his MFA in Sculpture from Hunter College and a Bachelor of Art degree in Fine Arts from Stonybrook University. He started teaching art in the NYC public schools in the 1980's and in 1999 began teaching college courses. He has taught art studio, theory and history to classes from foundation to graduate level. He has also given talks on many topics in art at various public and private institutions.

Courtney Young is an award winning pastel artist and teacher from Long Island. She holds a Master's Degree in Art Education and an MFA in Visual Arts. Her work has been exhibited throughout the Northeast. She has been teaching and sharing her love of art for over 10 years at the High School and College Level.
