SPECIAL LECTURE SERIES

Beginning in March 2019 PAC will present a new series of art talks in a very special way. Each art historical topic will be paired with wines from the associated region.

First up, John Cino will be speaking about Post-Impressionism. Get ready for some French wines as the art transforms from Realism to Abstraction and beyond in a thirty year period. Other fascinating topics will be explored in 2019 by guest speakers.

WINING ABOUT ART: Post Impressionism
Saturday, March 16, 2019 6:00PM – 8:00PM • $35

What better way to kick-off Wining About Art than with French wines, treats from Mademoiselle of Patchogue and the beginning of modern art.

Post-Impressionism is often marked as the beginning of modernism as artists abandoned the need for representational accuracy each with a unique form of abstraction based on inner compulsion. After touching upon the place of Impressionism in art history, the major Post-Impressionists: Van Gogh, Seurat, Cezanne, and Gauguin will be discussed. The talk will conclude with a brief survey of those whose works followed included Picasso, Matisse, and Kandinsky.
