PATCHOGUE ARTS COUNCIL
Call for Muralist – Arts on Terry
May 27 – October 30, 2019

The Patchogue Arts Council, in collaboration with the Patchogue-Medford Library, is pleased to announce it is accepting submissions from muralists to exhibit a temporary mural on the rear of the Patchogue-Medford Library. The mural will be inspired by this year's festival season theme Artful Antics.

The Patchogue Arts Council Artful Antics Festival Season 2019, (AAFS) will explore whimsy, humor, joy, and play in art through varied media and disciplines including visual arts, dance, music, film and video in multiple venues in downtown Patchogue from April through October 2019.

The mural will be located in a highly visible location on the rear of the Patchogue-Medford Library and will serve as the backdrop for the Arts on Terry, a contemporary art street fair. Arts on Terry will take place on Terry Street and Taylor Lane adjacent to the Artspace building in Patchogue on Sunday, June 23, from 12:00 – 6:00 PM. The mural will remain on display throughout the Fall of 2019. The mural will be approximately 15 x 45 feet and should be executed in spray paint. Prior experience creating a mural is required. A stipend of $2,000 will be awarded to assist in the planning, design, and execution of the mural. The mural should be inspired by the spirit of the theme Artful Antics.
